Agreement for access to KPMG Report

By clicking on the link to the KPMG Agreed Upon Procedures (AUP) report below, you acknowledge that you will be bound by the following terms and conditions. Such electronic acceptance and agreement shall be deemed to be as effective as a written signature performed manually by you, on behalf of yourself, and/or of the user organization which you are acting on behalf of.

By clicking on the link below, you have agreed to the following terms of conditions for access:

- The KPMG report is prepared solely for the benefit and use of Crypto 20 directors and any authorized user as referred to in our engagement letter with the entity, and is not intended for any other purpose.
- Unless the Recipient is an authorized user explicitly stated in the engagement letter between KPMG Cayman Islands and the entity, the Recipient does not acquire, or assert that it has acquired, any rights as a result of this communication, or any subsequent communication related to this request, that it would not otherwise have had. KPMG therefore does not assume any duties or obligations to the Recipient as a result of providing the report.
- All users agree to release, indemnify and hold harmless KPMG and its personnel from any claim resulting from an unauthorized distribution that is made by the user to any third party that seeks to rely on the report.
- The Recipient shall indemnify and hold harmless KPMG from and against all claims, liabilities, losses and expenses suffered or incurred arising out of or in connection with any breach of this agreement by the Recipient or its representatives; and/or any use or disclosure of, or reliance on, the report by any other party that obtains access to the report either directly or indirectly from or through the Recipient or at its request.
- The terms and conditions of this agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.
